Dear Colleagues:

On April 19th, the 6th Annual Bilingual/Bicultural Pre-School Education Conference will be held at the Labor Education Center, in New Brunswick. The conference will be sponsored by the Puerto Rican Coalition for Child Development (PRCCD) with the cooperation of the Puerto Rican Congress of New Jersey and the Rutgers School of Education.

This year's theme is "A Historical Perspective of Bilingual/Bicultural Pre-School Education in New Jersey". The theme will be addressed by Ms. Grace Ibañez de Friedman. Ms. Friedman is presently a full time Educational Consultant to the Hispanic Child Welfare Training project administered by the Puerto Rican Congress. Ms. Friedman has extensive experience as a trainer and curriculum developer in the area of early childhood and Bilingual/Bicultural Education. She is also one of the original founders of the Puerto Rican Coalition for Child Development (PRCCD). The Keynote Speech will be followed by morning and afternoon workshops.

The workshops, which are geared to developing the skills and capacities of the staff and parents involved in the child's growth process, will include an orientation session on the curriculum developed by the P.R.C., parent involvement, and several others.

The conference is a yearly opportunity to discuss issues and concerns in bilingual/bicultural early childhood education. It is also the time to interact with fellow professionals in the field in an atmosphere of sharing. Therefore we hope that you will be present at the activity.

A conference fee of $1.00 per participant or $15.00 per day care center will be charged in order to help underwrite some of the cost involved. As the program is formalized you will be receiving more information including instructions on how to reach the conference site.
